The Property

Knockomie Hotel is situated in an elevated position to the South of the Royal Burgh of Forres. The Inn is situated in 4 acres of lawned grounds and parkland.

By car to the town centre takes 3 minutes whilst by foot it takes 15 minutes. Inverness is approximately 30 minutes drive. The Inn is easily located off the A940 Forres to Grantown-on-Spey road.

The hotel is regularly upgraded and refurbished. Knockomie Inn is rated 4 stars by the Scottish Tourist Board, is recommended in the Scotland's Hotels of Distinction Directory.

The History

The building, which is now Knockomie Inn, was built in 1821 and was substantially extended in 1914 and again in 1993. The house was originally owned by the Fraser family who retired to Scotland from India in 1912 and were responsible for the first extension that doubled the size of the house. The house was converted to an Inn in 1986. In November 1987 the Ellis family purchased the hotel and extended again in 1993.

The Inn is open throughout the year under the supervision of Gavin and Penny Ellis who have extensive experience in the management and operation of quality hotels throughout the UK.

The Facilities

The Inn comprises 15 bedrooms, all of which have en-suite facilities. Most of the bedrooms are particularly large with views across to the town of Forres and the grounds of the hotel. All are equipped with tea and coffee making facilities, freeview colour television, tea and coffee making facilities and hair dryer. Our Aberlour and Benromach Rooms with their four poster beds are ideal for the bride and groom.

Dining at the Inn has evolved over the years with rooms recently refurbished with a more contemporary theme and this is also reflected in the menus offered, that are more in keeping with modern tastes, but still using the finest local produce where possible.

The Malt Library Bar with its book lined walls and shelves stocked with over 80 malt whisky's provides an ideal meeting place to relax and catch up with friends and family.

The Strathcona Room is adjacent to The Malt Library, this room can be used for private functions and will seat up to 40 people.

Ample car parking is available.

Your Booking

At Knockomie Inn we firmly believe that every private booking needs our careful and individual attention. We will work hard with you to ensure your day or evening is a success. Part of our commitment to you is that we do not offer standard "packages".

We welcome guests at any time to view our facilities but would stress that it may be difficult to spend time with you if the hotel is very busy. To ensure we have time to spend with you it is helpful to give us a call and let us know when you would like to visit.

At this first meeting we will discuss with you exactly what you require and we will show you our facilities and explain to you what we can offer. If you wish, you may then make a provisional reservation, particularly appropriate for weddings. We will hold this reservation for you for 14 days to allow you to check availability of a minister or registrar. A letter of confirmation together with the appropriate deposit should follow this. We will then confirm the booking back to you. At this stage you should also book your photographer, cake, flowers, entertainment and transport. We would then like to meet with you again a few weeks before your wedding or private party and discuss in detail with you your requirements. At this stage we confirm timings, drinks, menus etc. etc... We will then write to you to confirm the details we have discussed.

We ask you then to confirm these details are in order. Final details such as numbers, table plan etc. should then be with the hotel 2 weeks prior to the wedding.

Sometimes weddings and parties are booked at fairly short notice. If this is the case all the details can be dealt with at one meeting. Many of our weddings are for couples from overseas and it is difficult to visit the hotel prior to the wedding. If this is the case we are happy to discuss details with you over the telephone and by letter or email.

Getting Married

At Knockomie Inn we can host both civil and religious weddings. Whether your marriage is to be civil or religious you still need to contact the registrar as he is responsible for all the paperwork. If you have a religious wedding he will prepare the marriage schedule for signing and you will collect it from him and return it signed after the wedding. You have a choice of a religious or civil wedding in the hotel or a wedding in a local church or in the registry office in Forres. Many of our bride and grooms come to us asking for the ceremony to take place in the Inn but we will always ask you to consider being married out with the Inn. The reason for this is that we believe a ceremony in the hotel sometimes lacks some sense of occasion. When you and your guests have all got dressed up it is special for the bride to go out to her wedding then to return, with her new husband to the reception. The decision however is left entirely to the bride and groom.

Registry Office

Many brides and grooms tell us they do not want a registry office wedding. This is usually because they have an impression that the registrar will be rushing the wedding through complete with his plastic carnation and that you will have to queue outside the office and wait your turn. That's not what happens in Forres! You will not be in a queue or "processed". The office, I think, married only around 100 couples in the whole of last year. The registrar Heather Kellas is a lovely lady and she will make your wedding special. If she has more than one wedding she will not allow them to be so close together that you meet each other at the door!

Local Church

You can be married either in the St Laurence's Church, a Church of Scotland or St John's Episcopalian church (the Episcopalian church is very similar to the Church of England). Both churches are very friendly and are lovely places to be married. The ministers in both churches are friendly and will help make your day a great success.

Inn

Only Heather Kellas, the Registrar, Reverend Barry Boyd from St Laurence's Church, a Church of Scotland Minister of your choice, a non denominational minister or a Humanist can marry people at the Inn. The ceremony is normally in the Inn, but, if the weather is nice, we can move outside if you prefer. With the un-predictable Scottish weather it is not safe to plan an outside wedding without a fall back plan.

Numbers

We welcome weddings for any number up to 40 guests. If you do not take exclusive use of the hotel we limit the number of rooms you can book to 8. This is to ensure your comfort and that of other guests using the Inn. There is, of course, some flexibility to this rule if you are being married at a very quiet time of the year. We can accommodate up to 40 guests in comfort for the wedding and reception. Although we have only 15 bedrooms there are other hotels and Bed and Breakfast houses that can provide additional accommodation. Additional guests can join the celebration in the evening if you so wish.

Exclusive Use

The Inn is available for exclusive use at certain times. Exclusive use entitles you to all our 15 bedrooms plus our dining rooms as required and our rates include an allowance towards dinner, bed and breakfast. More details are available on request.

Entertainment

In order to ensure your enjoyment and also that of other guests who may be using the Inn we insist that amplified music can only be used if you have taken a minimum of the 2 bedrooms above the dance floor and bar plus the Glenburgie and Aberlour Rooms or that you have exclusive use of the Inn. All entertainment must be agreed with us in advance. During high season, no discos are permitted as entertainment, only live bands.

Malt Library Bar

During your evening reception you and your guests will have full use of the Malt Library bar; this is not for your exclusive use unless you have booked the whole Inn.

CHARGES

Smaller Parties

We offer a 10% accommodation discount from our published tariff for guests attending the wedding.

Room Hire Charges

The Inn is available for hire for the wedding ceremony at a charge of £350.00. If you have taken our exclusive use option the room is included in the exclusive use charge.

Alcohol: We do not have the facility to allow organisers to supply wines, Champagne etc. on a corkage basis, however we are happy to try to source a particular favourite wine beer or spirit for you. No wines, spirits, food or beverage may be brought into the Hotel or grounds by or on behalf of yourself or any guests for consumption on the Hotel premises unless the prior consent of the Hotel has been obtained, for which a charge will be made. Charges will be applied to your account if any guest is found to be consuming drinks not purchased from Knockomie Hotel. It is your responsibility to ensure no alcoholic drinks are served and/ or consumed in the car park area of the hotel. The hotel reserves the right to stop the event and escort the guests off the premises.

VAT

Please note that all our prices include applicable VAT.

Deposits

When a wedding reception is booked a deposit of £350.00 plus £100.00 per room is required to confirm the booking. It should be noted that in the event of a cancellation this deposit is strictly non refundable.

Payment

We are pleased to accept Cash, Mastercard, Visa or Amex. Credit cards used for payment will incur a 3% service charge. If you wish to pay the balance of your account by cheque, you must advise us of this 10 days before the function.

DINING

Our Chef produces interesting and imaginative dishes using fresh local ingredients wherever possible.

This selector is designed to be used by organisers for parties of at least 10 guests. When selecting your menu we would ask that you select one dish for each course. If you wish a choice we would recommend no more than two dishes per course. Where there is a choice the cost of the menu will be increased by £1.60 per course.

We always offer a vegetarian option, special diet menus or an alternative dish if you know a guest will not enjoy your choice. There is no charge for this option and we must be notified in advance.
